

Grand Final Lunch

Anyone who thinks football is just a game hasn't been to our Grand Final Luncheon at The Point, Albert Park where football is a way of life!

The 2007 luncheon was a huge success, hosted by Channel 10 sports presenter Ian Cohen and footy legend, Simon Madden. An emotional key note address was delivered by Steven Smith, ex Melbourne FC hero, who shared insights into his personal life, friendship with the great Len Thomson and the workings of Aussie Rules.

Thanks to the hard work of auctioneer extraordinaire Bill Wellwood our event raised in excess of $30,000!

Thank you to our wonderful friends and sponsors The Point, Albert Park. Thanks also to the fabulous Tyrrell's Wines, Foster's Group and Myles Audio Visual.

In 2007 our friends at the Nine Network Australia opened the doors at Studio 9 and helped us host a fabulous cocktail reception on the set of 'Who wants to be a Millionaire?'

The evening, aptly titled 'Thanks a Million', was an opportunity for us to acknowledge our long-term supporters whose generous contributions have made our work possible.

Thanks a million to Spectrum, who kept our crowd dancing and singing and Tyrrell's Wines and Foster's Group for quenching our thirst. Thanks also to the Nine Network Australia and Degani/Café 22.
